Gerhard,

Thank you.

At this point, I need to remove all association with these two articles. I suspect you understand. I'm especially worried about mention of me on Page 6 of the "More research is needed" paper.

Thanks again for your understanding...

Bryan

Dear Bryan,

John Fuerst sent me the attached two papers for publication in Mankind Quarterly. These are indeed important papers that should be published, but I guess that no other outlet would want them. Anyway, for you it is a strategic matter whether to publish, when, and under what names. Pseudonyms are okay. My preference would be to publish the two papers together and to solicit critical comments on them to which the authors can reply. Perhaps put the two papers in the September issue if you want to rush it, and the comments in the December issue. Or both together in December. But you have to decide about the best way to proceed, to minimize the risks for you and for others.

All the best,

Gerhard
